A 25-year veteran of New York commercial real estate banking, Stacks joins BankUnited from Capital One Bank in New York, N.Y., where he served most recently as senior vice president. Stacks served nine years there, after holding various positions at HSBC Bank and M&T Bank.

"As one of the most respected CRE lending executives in New York City, Ben possesses a broad understanding of all aspects of the real estate and banking industries, making him a valuable addition to our executive team," said BankUnited President and CEO Rajinder P. Singh. "Our bankers, many of whom have worked extensively with Ben in the past, are looking forward to having him lead BankUnited's New York commercial real estate lending."

Ben serves on a number of industry boards, including the Real Estate Lenders Association, Breaking Ground and the Young Mortgage Bankers Association. He is member of the Large Loan Lenders Roundtable and is a guest lecturer at the New York University School of Real Estate. He is a resident of Rye, N.Y., where he is a former city councilman.

Stacks earned his MBA from American University, Washington, D.C., and a bachelor's degree from Syracuse University, Syracuse, N.Y.

Stacks will be based in the 50th & 5th Avenue Office, located at 623 5th Avenue, New York, NY 10022. For information call 212-409-1265 or visit www.BankUnited.com.
