Seymour joins the newly installed team in Atlanta charged with delivering BankUnited's relationship-driven banking solutions to middle-market and large corporate companies doing business in the Atlanta metropolitan region and throughout the Southeast. With nearly a decade of industry experience, Seymour, who served most recently as vice president, commercial real estate for Truist in Atlanta, will develop and lead BankUnited's commercial real estate lending team serving clients in Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, North Carolina and South Carolina.

A resident of Decatur, Seymour earned his bachelor's in commercial real estate and finance from Georgia State University and currently serves on the ULI Atlanta Advisory Board.

In addition to commercial real estate lending, BankUnited's Atlanta office serves as a hub for corporate banking, treasury management and healthcare banking.

BankUnited is one of the largest independent depository institutions headquartered in Florida, providing individuals, small businesses, middle-market companies, large corporations and institutions throughout Florida, New York, Atlanta and Dallas with a full range of banking and related services, including corporate and commercial lending, deposit services and treasury management solutions.

BankUnited's Atlanta office is located at the One Alliance Center, 3500 Lenox Road, Suite 720. For more information visit www.BankUnited.com or call (470) 206-9442.
