Kelly Sleece, BankUnited Executive Vice President, Managing Director, National Title Solutions

“As one of our top senior leaders at BankUnited, Kelly possesses the leadership qualities, experience and commitment to excellence that will help guide the continued growth of our National Title Solutions division,” said Rajinder P. Singh, BankUnited chairman, president and CEO.

In her expanded role, Sleece will lead BankUnited's NTS division in providing superior custom banking and treasury management solutions to clients operating in the title industry in 46 states. She joined BankUnited in 2013 and played a strategic role in establishing the bank's presence in New York. Since then, she has been responsible for managing the commercial private banking group and banking center operations in New York City, providing cash management solutions to some of New York City's largest corporate and real estate owners.

A leader in commercial private banking for more than two decades, Sleece began her career at North Fork Bank in 2002, and went on to hold senior positions at Capital One. She holds a bachelor's degree from Quinnipiac University in Hamden, Connecticut, and currently resides in Manhattan.

Sleece is based at 445 Broadhollow Road, Melville, New York. For more information, call (212) 705-8643 or visit www.BankUnited.com.
