Lublin will replace Sam Giarrusso who will retire on that date. John Kanas, chairman, president and CEO of BankUnited said, "Sam and his team have done a remarkable job of building a first class real estate lending business in New York from scratch. He has assembled an extremely qualified staff of real estate lending professionals with Scott at the top of that list. We owe Sam a great debt of gratitude and wish him the very best in retirement." Giarrusso will remain available to the BankUnited team on a consulting basis for the balance of 2017.

Lublin first worked with Giarrusso at M&T Bank nearly 20 years ago. Lublin came to BankUnited in 2013 as a senior vice president. He earned his bachelor's degree at SUNY Buffalo and his MBA at Fordham University.
