A career commercial credit risk executive with an exceptional breadth of expertise, Richards comes to BankUnited from TD Bank in Greenville, South Carolina where he served as Senior Vice President and Executive Credit Officer. In his role, Richards will be responsible for overseeing and managing the overall credit process and risk of BankUnited's loan portfolios, including the underwriting function and portfolio management.

"Jay is a seasoned credit executive with extensive credit experience across all commercial lines of business and over multiple geographic markets," said BankUnited President and CEO Rajinder P. Singh. "We are eager to welcome Jay into the BankUnited family."

Leonard added, "We are fortunate to add someone with Jay's skill and strong leadership ability to our team. His experience in the credit risk space will pay significant dividends as we continue to position the bank for continued growth."

Richards received a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana State University in Terre Haute, Indiana.

Richards will be based at BankUnited's corporate headquarters at 7815 NW 148th Street, Miami Lakes, Florida.
